LEGACY OF HOPE®

A dramatic and thought-provoking one-woman show that enables youth and adults to make healthy choices

DE-STRESS FOR SUCCESS®

The College Experience is more stressful today-
Give students the tools to cope successfully

The ravages of excess drinking and drug abuse respect no boundaries...

College drinking, drugs and irresponsible sexuality continue to have serious life-long emotional, physical, social and spiritual impact on students' lives. Here are vivid portrayals of real life stories that dramatically and profoundly touch every man, woman and child in the audience. Not just another "talking head." Susie brings these issues and more to a new level of awareness with an unforgettable, research-based, heart-driven delivery. She poignantly shares her own personal life story about a loved one's emotional coping with alcohol and drugs and how his choices destroyed relationships, self-esteem of a whole family, and led to significant financial and emotional turmoil and the loss of life itself.

Susie portrays a variety of characters, that every youth and adult will relate to—

Susie Vanderlip entertains with a captivating array of characters, stories, and research-based information 'Broadway-class' and profoundly moving
